

DAVID J. COLE & ASSOCIATES, INC.

David J. Cole
Skye L. Stuart
Chrissy Estes Faraci
Scott A. Jackson

Skye L. Stuart, Senior Associate – David J. Cole & Associates, Inc.

Skye joined David J. Cole & Associates over six years ago, bringing her expertise in local government across a broad range of metro community to the company. Ms. Stuart is the lead associate working for clients such as the Home Builders Association of Metro Denver, Comcast Cable Corporation, Western Disposal and the Colorado Credit Union Association. In this role she provides strategic government relations planning, lobbying services, and community outreach for clients. Other major clients include the Colorado Gaming Association, the Denver Broncos, High Point at DIA development, Metro Taxi, Boral Industries, Mortenson Construction and AMPCO System Parking. Skye is proud to count many successes during her time at DJCA including lobbying for elimination or reduction of burdensome fees, defeating proposed damaging regulation of industry, securing award of contracts, and winning approval for a number of important rezonings. Skye was also a major participant in the successfully negotiated multi-jurisdictional deal between Denver and Aurora, which includes entitlements, land use agreements, and development agreements related to noise contours for the High Point development operated by LNR Property Corp.

Ms. Stuart graduated summa cum laude from the University of Colorado at Boulder with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science. Before joining DJCA in 2003, Skye worked as a consultant with Reiter & Associates, assisting with day-to-day campaign operations for the No on 33 racetrack casino initiative and the Arapahoe County Open Space ballot question. She has also worked as a consultant on several successful candidate and issue campaigns including Ken Salazar for U.S. Senate, Don Quick for DA of the 17th Judicial District, No on Amendment 34 (Construction Defects), and Yes on Amendment 50 (Changes in Limited Gaming). Skye served as Campaign Manager for two consecutive successful Karen Stuart for Mayor races in Broomfield and the successful 2007 Eric Tade for City Council campaign in Thornton. Skye currently serves as the Chair of the Public Affairs Council for the Colorado Women's Chamber of Commerce. Skye's work in the private sector, volunteer activities, and campaign experience has forged relationships with local officials throughout the Front Range.